Fundie Kickoff Party April 26; On-Air Drive starts 5/8

Short and Sweet: We need your help tout de suite!

A Message from KGLP's
Station Manager

Yes, we are asking for donations to pay the electric bills, maintain our equipment, and keep KGLP humming.

This Wednesday evening, April 26th, from 6:30 until nine, board member Terry Sloan is hosting another kickoff party for KGLP, launching our fundraising campaign in his back yard,

Board Update

Last November, James Fisk, of UNMG's Zollinger Library, was appointed by UNMG CEO and Ex-Officio Gallup Public Radio board member Dr. Christopher Dyer, to fill a seat vacated by UNMG

Is Federal Support for Public Radio in the United States sunseting, or will Congress just cut back on funding to the Corporation for Public Broadcasting? Much will depend on whether you contact your U.S. Senators and representatives to encourage continued support for stations such as KGLP.

at 1115 Boggio Drive, in Gallup. If you might like to bring your checkbook, cash, credit card, or even a mobile device with the SquareCash app, enjoy some refreshments, including wine and cheese, if so inclined, listen to some entertainment from area performers, and maybe socialize with folks from your radio, then come! For more information or maybe directions you can call me at 505-980-5437, or email:

manager@kglp.org

and Carol Sarath, continuing as Vice-President and Interim Treasurer, thereby filling all ten seats.

We thank Rick for his service, as well as Eileen Barrett, and, of course, Colin Gershon.

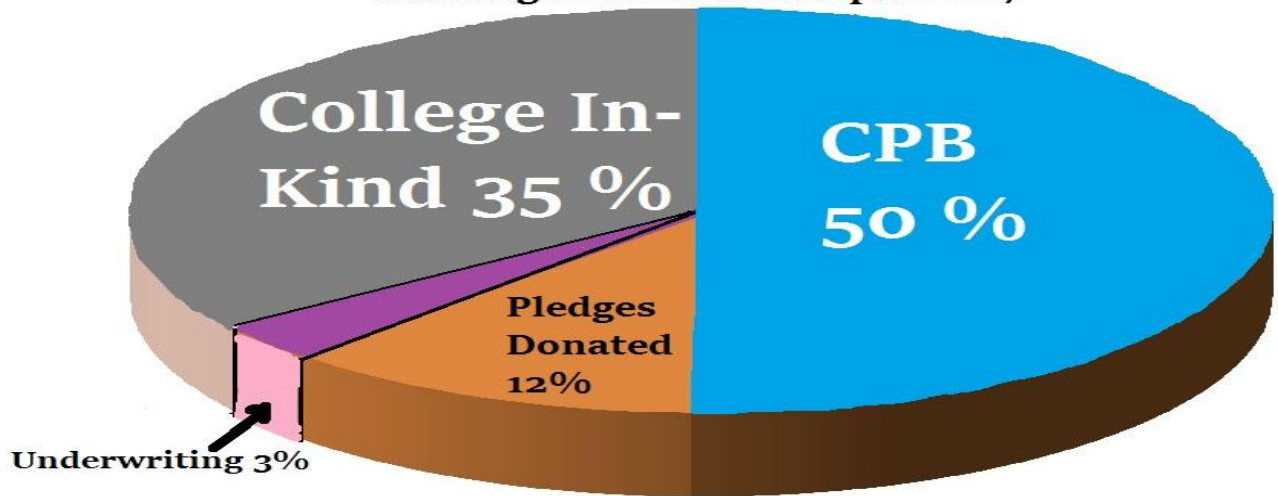

appointee, Richard Goshorn. In January, Katherine Belzowski and Joshua Kanter were elected to the board, along with returning members Raymond Calderon, continuing as President,

You are Invited !!

KGLP's Spring fundraiser will kick off this Wednesday evening, April 26th, from 6:30 until 9, with a back yard party at board member Terrence Sloan's house, 1115 Boggio Drive, in Gallup. You may call Rachel Kaub at 505-980-5437, for directions or questions.

- There will be some refreshments, including wine and cheese, music with the duo, Dey 'n Nite, performing original music, plus local trio, Rippy and the Sillyettes covering oldies.
- This is an opportunity to socialize, network, and support Public Radio in Gallup, as we prepare for our fundraising campaign, which starts on-air during the week of May 8th through May 13th, 2017.
- If you come by, bring your checkbook, cash, credit card", or even your mobile device with a SquareCash app, and be prepared to donate something to KGLP. If you can't make it, consider making a donation during Gallup Public Radio's Fall Campaign, which will start on-air during the week of May 8 thru the 13th.
- We hope to raise at least $16,000 during this Spring Campaign, supplementing additional fundraising options such as crowd fundraising and grants to finally upgrade KGLP's studios, including the hope of fully digitized access and technologies easing participation by community volunteers and students with disabilities such as impaired vision & limited mobility.
- Rachel Kaub will be on hand with an audio recorder, should anyone wish to record a "shout out" to KGLP listeners in order to commemorate KGLP's 25th year on the air, which we might broadcast during our next fundraisers through this Fall.
- We're inviting some folks who support KGLP to talk about why they need Public Radio...speaking to the choir, with the passion that like minds share.

DIRECTIONS to KGLP's Fundraising PARTY, Wednesday, April 26th, from 6:30 until 9 PM:

Follow RidgeCrest Avenue East of Red Rock Elementary, passing the first entrance for Boggio Drive, turning right at the second entrance to Boggio Drive. House on the right:

A Message from KGLP's Station Manager

The future of public radio in Gallup and the surrounding area is stable this year, but we need your help in order to continue next year, particularly with federal funds facing the axe. We would love to know that you want to keep public radio around. Your contributions drive that point home, here, and in the halls of Congress.

Rachel Kaub

KGLP Station Manager
